

UNIVERSITY OF PRISHTINA
FACULTY OF LAW

Master's Programme in "Human Rights,
International Criminal Law,
and Transitional Justice"

The master's programme in "Human Rights, International Criminal Law, and Transitional Justice" is a one-year program (60 ECTS) designed to educate 25 professionals in the field of Human Rights, International Criminal Law and Transitional Justice.

The program's comprehensive curriculum encompasses current and relevant topics at the local, regional, and international levels.

Application deadline

From July 26 to September 15, 2024.

Application form

The application is made online by attaching the required documents to the link:

<https://opencallapp.uni-pr.edu/>

Eligible candidates for application are students who have successfully completed their undergraduate studies in law, political sciences, public administration, economics, psychology, and humanities.

The language of instruction for the program is English, and it welcomes a diverse group of 25 students from both local and international backgrounds.

The program duration is one academic year (60 ECTS) and will feature:

Expertise from International Co-Professors: Each course will be conducted by an esteemed international Co-Professor, hailing from prestigious universities, including institutions from Europe and the United States. These experts will not only deliver lectures but also provide valuable mentorship.

Tuition Fee Waiver: The program offers a tuition-free education to all enrolled students, regardless of their nationality or origin.

Accommodation for International Students: International students coming from outside Kosovo will be provided accommodation at the University of Prishtina's Student Center at no additional cost.

Scholarships for International Students: A total of five full scholarships, each covering the study period with a monthly stipend of 500 euros and travel costs, will be available to international students.

Study Visits: The program includes at least a study visit for students - to The Hague, ICTY, ICC (The Netherlands) or to Nuremberg, Academy of Nuremberg (Germany) and region.

Research Internships: All students will have the opportunity to engage in paid research internships at prominent institutions and centers in Kosovo and the surrounding region.

Apart from funding provided by the Faculty of Law at the University of Prishtina, the program is also supported by esteemed partners, including the Government of Switzerland, the United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights.

Study Program

Semester I
No.	O / E	Courses	ECTS
1.	O	Theory and Practice of Human Rights	5
2.	O	Introduction to International Criminal Law ( incl. the history of International Criminal Tribunals )	5
3.	O	Introduction to Transitional Justice	5
4.	O	Academic research skills, Strategic litigation and advocacy	5
2 Elective Courses
5.	E	Current Affairs in Human Rights, International Criminal Law and Transitional Justice	4
6.	E	Equality and Non-discrimination	4
7.	E	Cultural Heritage in Post-Conflict societies ( cases from the region )	4
8.	E	Civil Society and Transitional Justice	4
9.	E	Prohibition of torture, CPT; OPCAT; NPM ( incl domestic violence )	4
10.	E	Human Dignity in comparative perspective	4
11.	E	Business and HR	4
12.	E	HR in digital age	4
Semester II
1	O	International Human Rights Systems	5
2	O	Transitional Justice, Human rights and Peacebuilding	5
2 Elective Courses
3.	E	International crimes ( Genocide, Crimes against Humanity and War Crimes ) and jurisdictions ( from Nuremberg to recent trials )	4
4.	E	European Convention on Human Rights	4
5.	E	Reconciliation and Right to truth	4
6.	E	HR and environment	4
7.	E	HR and Kosovo Constitutional Court	4
8.	E	Socio-economic rights	4
9.	E	Rule of law tools for post-conflict societies	4
10.		Victims rights	4
	O	Dissertation (no longer than 10000 words)	14

Studying in Prishtina, Republic of Kosovo

Located in the heart of Kosovo, the city of Prishtina serves as an inspiring backdrop for your academic pursuits at the University of Prishtina's Faculty of Law. Prishtina, a city with a storied past and a resilient spirit, provides a dynamic environment for studying Human Rights, Transitional Justice, and International Criminal Law.

Beyond the classroom, Prishtina's bustling streets and diverse neighborhoods invite you to engage with its welcoming population, fostering cultural exchange and global perspectives. The city's cultural events, festivals, and local cuisine offer a wealth of opportunities for relaxation and exploration, ensuring a well-rounded student experience.

Incorporating the essence of Prishtina into your academic journey adds depth and authenticity to your studies. By choosing to study at the University of Prishtina's Faculty of Law, you not only invest in your education but also in your personal growth and cultural enrichment. Join us in Prishtina and seize the chance to be part of a community that is shaping the future of legal discourse in a city that embodies the principles you're passionate about.

From the world to University of Prishtina:
<https://uni-pr.edu/page.aspx?id=1,179>

Faculty of Law, University of Prishtina:
<https://juridiku.uni-pr.edu/page.aspx?id=2,1>

 Rr. "Agim Ramadani", p.n. 10 000 Prishtinë,
Republika e Kosovës

In case of problems during the application and the need for additional information, please contact in the email address: master_hricltj@uni-pr.edu

